

RISK DISCLOSURE:

Alpine Recreation requires every person who participates in one of the company's trips to acknowledge the inherent risks in the activity being undertaken. Because you will be entering a natural environment, where there are many uncontrolled hazards ranging from weather to avalanches, there is no guarantee that Alpine Recreation can entirely eliminate all risks resulting from your exposure to those hazards. Guides will use a high degree of skill to mitigate, minimise and avoid those risks, to ensure the safety and welfare of participants. Alpine Recreation Canterbury Ltd. will not accept liability for loss, injury or damage sustained by a participant or his/her dependents in circumstances where the likelihood or occurrence AND the consequences of a natural hazard or other event was difficult to predict, or avoid by the exercise of reasonable care. Alpine Recreation reserves the right to withdraw any person who in their opinion is likely to endanger themselves or others. This exclusion includes the overuse of alcohol and/or recreational drugs.
